Don’t Miss the READY SUMMIT

Coming July 28-30th, the Ready Summit will feature training from experts in first aid, food storage, water treatment and storage, emergency planning and kits, food preservation, solar energy solutions, home and personal defense and security and of course radio and emergency communications.

It’s going to be epic!

> Our mission is to help Hundreds of Thousands of Families get prepared without breaking the bank, without buying useless but most importantly, by giving you access to world class instruction, resources and recurring and advanced training.

Normally all of this would be a few thousand dollars in course fees to get access to these experts. Thankfully, through the Ready Summit platform, and for a limited time, it’s only $97 per year for full access, which include all of the following:

Instructors and Speakers

Scott Stallings - Getting Started and getting Organized

Scott is the creator and founder of PrepperCon, and a Host of Prepper Talk Radio. Scott is a lifelong prepper who was reluctantly pulled into the limelight to help open the pathway to preparedness through PrepperCon and Prepper Talk Radio. He is a gear junkie and focuses on teaching the fundamentals of preparedness. He focuses on Assess, Plan, Acquire and Grow (APAG).

This former college Admissions Director turned prepping spokesperson is passionate about turning every home into a rotating warehouse and every yard into a garden. Creating a prepared society by creating prepared families.

Cidni Stewart aka Prepsteader - Canning and Food preservation

Cidni is currently helping hundreds of thousands learn canning online. Her deep knowledge of traditional, rebel and pressure canner methods and recipes make her our go-to for all things canning.

She has also mastered other food preservation techniques and is a seasoned veteran when it comes to prepping.

She's a Mom, wife, homesteader and here at the Ready Summit, our very own Canning Superwoman.

Teddy Hodges - DIY Solar Master Class

We call Teddy our Mr DIY Solar.

-Has Installed/Consulted 1000's of Solar Projects in 35 states, 4 countries, including Hawaii, Alaska, Kenya, South Africa, Mexico and England.

-Licensed Professional 20+ NABCEP Certified.

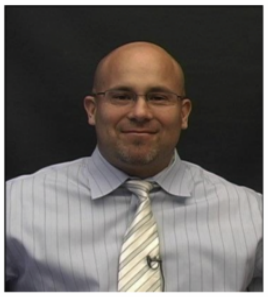
-Certified Enphase, Lion Energy, Sonnen, SolarEdged, Sol-Ark, AP Systems, Humless, plus more, etc.

Sue M. - Off Grid Cooking Methods

Sue is not only fantastically prepared, she is a walking, talking, teaching and preaching library of preparedness. Raised in a prepared household that actually practices what they preach, Sue has expanded what she has learned and continues to live the Ready life.

Sue has spent countless hours learning many methods to cook, clean and prepare every needful thing without being dependent on the grid or modern conveniences. All things "preparedness" come naturally to her and she has compiled amazing resources and methods to store food and water, proper sanitation during an emergency, holistic approaches to health needs, alternative cooking methods without power and more.

Sue and her family have been teaching one on one and to groups in Utah and Arizona for more than 20 years.



Joel “Stew” Stewart - Solar MasterClass

Our top go to guy for all things solar education, installation and understanding of our grid limitations and true capacity. He's our Real Life Nick Fury. You need a team of avengers? He can assemble it.
