

[VIDEO] Pocket Survival Kit (PSK) – Rescue vs. Self-recovery

There's a big debate going on since forever if you should attempt self-recovery or wait for rescue. After last week's video on rescue signaling in your PSK, Cache Valley Prepper is back to weigh in on what you should do during a survival situation.

Should you sit tight and hope for the best while doing staying alert so you can signal to rescuers or should you grit your teeth, check your supplies, make a plan and get to getting yourself safe?
