

The Largest Dealer Pushes For Gun Control

Were you relieved to hear that the US Senate shot down all four gun control measures presented by the Democrats on June 20th? I was, but I was also just as disturbed to see that SCOTUS refused to hear the case against assault weapons bans.

No doubt Hillary and her merry band aren't going to stop pushing for gun confiscation here in the United States.

So why is it that the Obama administration allowed Hillary to make so many deals that practically sold our military assets to countries that have a record for serious human rights violations?

How is it that these countries, plus one or more companies that sold these weapons through Hillary also contributed massive amounts of money to the Clinton Foundation and/or to her political campaign?

When Sam Jacob at ammo.com sent me this infographic, my first thought was "this is incredibly disturbing because terrorists will be coming through our leaky sieve of an immigration system with guns that Hillary sold to them even as she moves to disarm our innocent citizens."

If you, or anyone else needs a good answer for why our citizens need to own an "assault weapon" here in the United States – quite frankly – the way things went down in Syria and this infographic says it all!

AN INCONVENIENT TRUTH:
HOW THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION
BECAME EARTH'S LARGEST ARMS DEALER

The Obama administration has approved more foreign arms sales than any U.S. administration since World War II. And many of those sales will likely result in unintended consequences - especially if more than 40 percent of American arms sales have gone to the Middle East and Persian Gulf.

What is the Military-Industrial Complex?

Defense contractors form one of the largest and most influential lobbies in Washington. This influence is so strong President Eisenhower, who was elected on the issue of reducing military involvement abroad, was forced to reverse his position and increase military spending.

"In the interests of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex."

As a defense contractor, once you've developed technology for the U.S. government, you then need to lobby for congressional permissions to sell your weapons. In 2013, we as defense contractors spent over $65 million attempting to influence Congress to increase the defense budget. Credit goes to the

Who is Buying Our Weapons?

According to the Leahy Law, a U.S. human rights law that prohibits the Department of State and Department of Defense from providing military assistance to foreign military units that violate human rights with impunity, the assistance will be withheld if the Secretary of State has credible information that such unit has committed a gross violation of human rights. "A gross violation of human rights is defined as:

Under the Obama administration, 60% of American weapon sales have gone to Middle Eastern governments with poor human rights records, with the top 25 nations receiving over $2.65 billion in arms, according to
