

VIDEO: How to Make Char Cloth Without a Tin!

In this video, Tyler will show us how to make char cloth from a piece of old cloth he found abandoned in the wild and how to use a flint and steel to ignite it.

Char cloths are one of the easiest (and oldest) ways to start a fire while out and about, requiring just a spark from a flint & steel or a ferro rod, or even a lighter ran out of gas, to get you going towards building a fire and keeping yourself warm.
